Reviewing this DocumentReview Periods

Periodical review: We will review this TMD within 2 years from the effective date to ensure it remains appropriate.

Occurrence of review trigger: We will review this TMD within 10 business days of the occurrence of any review trigger.

Review Triggers

We will review this TMD in the event of circumstances (called 'review triggers') occur that would reasonably suggest that the determination is no longer appropriate. This includes:

- We make a material change to the product terms and conditions, or account access methods;
- A change in our acceptance criteria that impacts on the suitability of these products for the target markets;
- A material change to the distribution of the products;
- The discovery of a relevant and material deficiency in the disclosure documentation for these products;
- Systemic or significant number of complaints which indicate that any product is no longer suitable for the described target market;
- Changes in product performance metrics; business performance and value provided to customers;
- Changes to legal or regulatory requirements that the Bank must comply with;
- Changes to the product key attributes that would likely impact the customers' needs and objectives; and
- Significant dealing in the product that is not consistent with the TMD.

Reporting

Bank of Sydney and all distributors must record all complaints received about these products on a quarterly basis (Complaints Reporting Period). Distributors are required to provide to us written details of any complaints they have received during the Complaints Reporting Period within 10 business days of the end of the period.

Our distributors and authorised representatives are required to provide regular and incident-based reporting on key metrics (see the heading "Reviewing this document") to allow us to review this TMD.

Distributors are also required to report to Bank of Sydney if they become aware of a significant dealing in these products which is not consistent with this TMD within 10 business days of becoming aware of such dealing.

Record Keeping

Bank of Sydney and its distributors will maintain records of the reasonable steps they have taken to ensure that these products are sold in a manner consistent with this TMD.

We will also prepare and maintain complete and accurate records of our decisions, and the reasons for those decisions in relation to:

- All target market determinations for these products,
- Identifying and tracking review triggers,
- Setting review periods, and
- The matters documented in this TMD.
